

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Pronunciation Supplement
(Unit 13)

COULD YOU . . . ?

In Could you, the final sound in Could and the initial sound in you are pronounced together as "couldja."

For example:

/dʒ/ /dʒ/

Could you open the window? Could d you please help me?

Exercise 1 Listen to Exercise A, Vocabulary, on page 112 of the Student's Book and repeat after the pauses.

/dʒ/

1. Could d you please open the window?
2. Could d you please close the door?
3. Could d you please turn on the light?
4. Could d you please turn off the TV?
5. Could d you please help me?
6. Could d you please hand me my glasses?

Exercise 2 Listen to the Conversation Model on page 113 of the Student's Book and repeat after the pauses.

/dʒ/

Tina: Could d you do me a favor?

Roger: Sure. What?

Tina: Could d you please close the window?

Roger: No problem.